

The image shows a detailed stone door surround. At the top is a wide, flat lintel. Below it is a decorative frame with a central panel containing the text 'W G' and '1687'. The frame is flanked by two Gothic-style pointed arches. In the center, between the arches, is a decorative finial consisting of a central sphere and two scrolls. The entire structure is set against a rough stone wall. There are some plants visible on the left and right sides.

W G
1687